

K-Love is, just as it says, Positive and Encouraging. It's programs help me keep my sanity after a hard day of work and taking care of my child. The songs and stories are things that quite a few people that I know would miss. There aren't too many Christian radio stations available and taking this one away is wrong. There are lots of radio stations that give off plenty of bad music/language/stories/commentaries. Another point is that I pay for part of K-Love and you would be "stealing" from me!! Please don't do this.
